

Community Resiliency Assessments: Information Tracking

Vulnerability of Community Assets

VULNERABILITY QUESTIONS	HOW MANY ARE IMPACTED BY 1' SEA LEVEL RISE?	HOW MANY ARE IMPACTED BY 3' SEA LEVEL RISE?	HOW MANY ARE IMPACTED BY 6' SEA LEVEL RISE?	WHEN MIGHT THE ASSET(S) NEED REPLACEMENT OR MAJOR RENOVATION?	COMMENT
What Community Assets are being assessed? (List Below)
1
2
3
4

Resiliency - Mitigation Measures

WHICH MITIGATION MEASURES DOES YOUR COMMUNITY USE?	USE	NOT USE	COMMENT
Elevation of residential, non-residential buildings or infrastructure to National Flood Insurance Program standards for your community.
Relocation of buildings and infrastructure from flood prone areas.
Flood proofing of nonresidential structures.
Education programs about mitigation options for your community.
Acquisition of repetitive loss structures or property.
Incentives-based mitigation measures.
Adoption of most recent international building codes.
Certified building inspector staff.
Adequate staff to enforce building codes.
Completed or planned shoreline restoration projects for critically eroding areas.
Require protection and maintenance of sensitive coastal habitats, ecosystems, and natural features (dunes, barrier islands, marshes, etc.)
Have undeveloped public lands, such as parks, forests or preserves in the coastal high hazard area (Storm surge 1) or V zone (FIRM map)
Others?

Resiliency - Social Systems

WHAT SOCIAL SYSTEMS EXIST IN YOUR COMMUNITY?	YES	NO	COMMENT
Faith-based networks that are engaged with the community.
Networks based on cultural identity, unifying ethnic groups.
Active neighborhood associations.
Robust business associations.
Strong civic associations.
Community involvement in schools.
Student involvement in community.
Universities with connections to the community.

Stakeholder Groups

LIST STAKEHOLDER GROUPS REPRESENTED AT THE COMMUNITY ASSESSMENT MEETING
1
2
3
4

Background

BACKGROUND	YES	NO	COMMENT
Is your community currently working on sea level rise issues?
Is your community currently participating in the FEMA Community Rating System?
Does your community's comprehensive plan set goals or policies related to sea level rise?
Has your community experienced withdrawal of property insurers that formerly provided insurance in your area?			